Good Samaritan to Receive City of Miami Beach Medallion

— Wednesday, April 25 at 5 p.m. —

WHO/WHAT:

As Miami Beach celebrated its 10th anniversary of the Miami Beach Gay Pride Festival, the overwhelming success of the event was overshadowed by the attack of a gay couple at 6 Street and Ocean Drive by four assailants. In spite of this horrific incident, the silver lining was the Good Samaritan that stepped in to protect the couple that was being viciously battered.

“Helmut Muller Estrada valiantly defended complete strangers,” said Miami Beach Commissioner Michael Gongora. “It is my honor to present the prestigious city medallion to Mr. Estrada tomorrow afternoon. I hope the community will join me in the Commission Chambers to support a true hero of compassion.”

The four subjects later surrendered to Miami Beach Police and have each been charged with aggravated battery.
