Rebirth Brass Band and Soul Queen Irma Thomas –*

Miami Beach, FL: Celebrate the red, white and blue this Independence Day with a nod to the great American music and spirit of New Orleans at South Florida's premier outdoor festival. Enjoy day-long entertainment and activities for the entire family at Miami Beach's North Beach Bandshell Park on Collins Avenue and 73 Street.

Presented by Coca-Cola and Hotwire Communications, the outdoor festival kicks-off at 9 a.m. with free yoga on the beach by NOBE Yoga and food trucks beginning at 1 p.m. From noon to 4 p.m., children will be able to enjoy a special Kids Zone on the Sands featuring a rock climbing wall, bungee station, inflatable slide and face painting station, fun and free soccer clinic, corn hole contest, potato sack racing, crafts and more with opportunities to win a prize. If that's not competitive enough for you, a pie eating contest will take place at noon.

As part of Miami Beach's role as a City of Kindness, Operation Thank You will be at the event throughout the day collecting and sending cards to thank the troops. Inviting various military organizations from the local community, T-Mobile will also be showing their gratitude by treating active military personnel and veterans to an exclusive experience at their V.I.P. area.

Live tunes throughout the day will be spun by DJ Corey Chase. Beginning at 4 p.m., take in the sounds of three-time Miami New Times' Best Band – Suenalo, then dance through the crowd with Miami's own Junkanoo Parade hosted by Island Grove Entertainment. At 6:15 p.m., the "Soul Queen" and American classic Irma Thomas and The Professionals will take the stage for a celebration of soul stirring music. Grammy award-winning New Orleans staple Rebirth Brass Band will close the show at 7:30 p.m. The event concludes by lighting up the night skyline with a spectacular fireworks show at 9 p.m.
