Miami Beach, FL – Entering its ninth season, the Cinema Series at SoundScape Park features free weekly movies in the park specially curated by Miami Jewish Film Festival Executive Director Igor Shteyrenberg. The seven-month series begins Wednesday, October 3 at 8 p.m. with the classic fantasy film “Neverending Story” (1984) that tells the story of a troubled boy who discovers a wondrous world through a mysterious book.

“Every season brings a new selection of classics, family favorites and award-winning films for the community to enjoy,” noted Mayor Dan Gelber. “I’m excited to see the residents and visitors of Miami Beach benefit from this unique cultural experience.”

The films are projected onto a 7,000 square foot wall of the New World Center through a freestanding state-of-the-art visual and audio system. Other movies scheduled for the season include “Mary Poppins” (1964), a special Halloween WALLCAST of “The Night of the Living Dead” (1968), “Black Panther” (2018), “An American in Paris” (1951), “Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade” (1989) and more.
