WHO/WHAT:

Taking the audience on a journey back in time, “The Last Resort” premieres on Friday, February 15 at 8 p.m. in the city where it all began – Miami Beach. Funded in part by the Cultural Arts Council and produced by O Cinema, one of the city’s cultural anchors, the documentary tells the story of the vibrant Jewish retiree community that defined the urban island in the 1970s when they escaped brutal winters and flocked in droves to the sunny paradise.

Highlighting colorful characters in the story, the film features photojournalism by esteemed photographers Andy Sweet and Gary Monroe. The award-winning motion picture has captivated audiences throughout the nation, earning the Audience Award for Best Documentary at the 2018 Miami Jewish Film Festival and receiving extensions in both New York City and Toronto, Canada.

Following the screening, filmmakers and Miami natives Dennis School, President and CEO of ArtCenter South Florida, and Kareem Tabsch, Co-Director of O Cinema will participate in a live Q&A.
