Children suffer developmental or behavioral disabilities that limit their health and school performance.

Behavioral health issues can affect a student's performance, increase truancy, school dropout rates, and difficulties in learning.

If you are in need of this service, please contact your child's school counselor or principal via email or call 305.995.3000 and ask for your school site administrator.

To request this material in alternate format, sign language interpreter (five-day notice required), information on access for persons with disabilities, and/or any accommodation to review any document or participate in any city-sponsored proceedings, call 305.604.2489 and select 1 for English or 2 for Spanish, then option 6; TTY users may call via 711 (Florida Relay Service).
