City of Miami Beach Sets a Date for Reopening Gyms, Summer Camps & More

– Along with Permitting Legal Short-Term Rentals to Operate –

Miami Beach, FL –Today, the City of Miami Beach has extended its State of Emergency Declaration through June 12, 2020 and amended its Emergency Measures. The city will be allowing the following to reopen per Amendment No. 2 in Miami-Dade County's Emergency Order \(EO\) 23-20, effective June 8, 2020:

- Gyms, fitness studios, tattoo parlors, massage studios/parlors and summer camps may all re-open subject to EO 23-20 and the guidelines in the County Handbook.
- Movie theaters, concert houses, auditoriums, playhouses and bowling alleys may reopen if they submit a COVID mitigation plan to the City and County and receive approval.
- Bars, pubs and nightclubs that are licensed by the State as a public food service establishment may sell food and alcoholic beverages for onsite consumption, pursuant to EO 23-20 and the rules in the Handbook. Standalone bars and nightclubs are still not permitted to reopen, and entertainment is not allowed pursuant to the City's Emergency Order.

Following the issuance of Amendment 2 to County EO 21-20, dog parks have reopened, effective today. The city will also allow youth sports to be conducted with certain social distancing and safety rules in place commencing on June 8, 2020.

Additionally, legal short-term rentals licensed by the City of Miami Beach may reopen effective today, subject to the requirements in Miami-Dade County Emergency Order \(EO\) 24-20.

Beaches continue to remain closed until Miami-Dade County lifts its curfew and permits them to open. Please visit www.miamibeachfl.gov/reopening for additional information on the city's reopening efforts and detailed industry guidelines.
