Ad Hoc Advisory Charter Review and Revision Board

2022-32234

Composition:

Pursuant to City Charter Section 8.01, the "Charter shall be reviewed ten (10) years from November 3, 1993, and each tenth year thereafter. "Periodic review of the City Charter is in the public interest to ensure the City Charter reflects the organization, powers, and essential functions of City government desired by the City's voters, and necessary for effective governance of the City. The next required Charter review is scheduled to take place in 2023; however, nothing in the Charter precludes the City Commission from initiating a Charter review at an earlier date. A review of the City's Charter has previously been accomplished by the creation and appointment of an Ad Hoc Advisory Charter Review and Revision Board ("Ad Hoc Board") to be composed of seven members appointed by the Mayor and City Commission. With the recent passing of Commissioner Mark Samuelian, the need to review the Charter provisions governing vacancy for reasons other than resignation underscores the importance of Charter review. The creation of the Ad Hoc Board at the earliest possible date is necessary to provide the Committee sufficient time to thoughtfully deliberate and make recommendations to the Mayor and City Commission. As such, the Mayor and City Commission desire to initiate the Charter Review process immediately, and to convene the Committee as soon as reasonably possible to give the Committee sufficient time to thoroughly vet and deliberate all proposals regarding filling City Commission vacancies and review and make recommendations concerning other provisions of the City Charter.

The Ad Hoc Board shall be composed of 6 direct appointments by the Mayor and individual City Commissioners.

The Group II appointment shall be an at-large appointment made by the Mayor and City Commission as a whole.

Resolution No. 2022-32390

Program for Public Information (PPI) Committee

Composition:

The goals of the Federal Emergency Management Agency's ("FEMA") National Flood Insurance Program ("NFIP") are to provide flood insurance to property owners, to encourage flood loss reduction activities by communities, and to save taxpayers' money.

The City of Miami Beach participates in the NFIP and the Community Rating System ("CRS"), a voluntary program that provides both incentives and tools to further these goals.

Participation in the CRS saves residents money by reducing flood insurance premiums.

The Program for Public Information ("PPI") provides activity points to improve the City's CRS score, which in turn helps to reduce flood insurance premiums.

An ad hoc advisory Resiliency Communications Committee was first created per Resolution No. 2016-29585 to serve as a PPI Committee from October 1, 2016 through October 1, 2017, and has been renewed every year since.

The latest advisory ad hoc Program for Public Information Committee was created pursuant to Resolution 2021- 31936, and will expire on December 31, 2022.

A PPI was developed by the initial ad hoc PPI Committee, according to a seven-step planning and public involvement process, defined by the CRS Program, and the PPI was adopted by the Mayor and City Commission per Resolution No. 2017- 29771.

Membership criteria for a PPI Committee is specified by CRS and must include: real estate agent(s), insurance agent(s), banking industry representative(s), the City's Floodplain Manager, and a Communications Department representative, and at least half of the Committee's members must be from outside the local government.

A new Program for Public Information Plan is required every five years, and on June 16, 2022 the Committee approved the new 2022 PPI to be transmitted to City Commission.

On July 20, 2022, the Mayor and City Commission adopted the Program for Public Information Plan via Resolution No. 2022-32216.

The City Manager recommends that the Mayor and City Commission accept the 2022 Report, attached to this Resolution as Exhibit A.

The members of the new ad hoc advisory PPI Committee (the Committee") shall be as follows:

The City's Communications Director; the City's Floodplain Manager; Scott Diffenderfer, as real estate agent; Carlos Gutierrez, a real estate agent; Alex Carrasco, a local bank representative; and John Lee, a local insurance agent.

The membership term on the new ad hoc Committee shall commence on January 1, 2023 and expire on December 31, 2023, subject to earlier or later sunset by the City Commission.
