Ad Hoc Advisory Charter Review and Revision Board

Composition:

Pursuant to Miami Beach City Charter Section 8.91, the "Charter shall be reviewed ten (10) years from November 3, 1993 and each tenth year thereafter." Periodic review of the City Charter is in the public interest to ensure the City Charter reflects the organization, powers and essential functions of City government desired by the City's voters. The next required Charter review is scheduled to take place in 2023; however, nothing in the Charter precludes the City Commission from initiating Charter review at an earlier date. A review of the City's Charter has previously been accomplished by the creation and appointment of an Ad Hoc Advisory Charter Review and Revision Board ("Ad Hoc Board") to be composed of seven members appointed by the Mayor and City Commission. There are currently multiple proposals by several Commissioners on how to address City Commission vacancies, and creation of the Ad Hoc Board is necessary to provide the Committee sufficient time to thoughtfully deliberate and make recommendations to the Mayor and City Commission. As such, the Mayor and City Commission desire to initiate the Charter Review process immediately, and to convene the Committee as soon as reasonably possible in order to give the Committee sufficient time to thoroughly vet and deliberate all proposals regarding filling City Commission vacancies and review and make recommendations with regard to other provisions of the City Charter.

The Board to is be composed of 7 direct appointments by the Mayor and individual City Commissioners.

At the June 20, 2022, City Commission meeting, the Mayor and City Commission adopted Resolution No. 2022-32234, establishing the Ad Hoc Advisory Charter Review and Revision Board ("Charter Review Board"). Unfortunately, due to the untimely passing of Commissioner Mark Samuelian, the Charter Review Board was unable to commence its work for approximately six (6) months, and was not fully constituted until after December 14, 2022, when the Mayor and City Commission adopted Resolution No. 2022-32448, to provide for newly elected Group II City Commissioner Laura Dominguez to make a direct appointment to the Charter Review Board. At its April 25, 2023 meeting, the Charter Review Board unanimously recommended that the Mayor and City Commission extend the term of the Board for six months, to allow the Board sufficient time to gather input from the City's Charter Officers, Elected Officials, and other interested stakeholders, and carefully vet proposed amendments to the City Charter. The Charter Review Board further recommends that the City follow the precedent set by the Charter Review Board of 2013/14 and elect not to place proposed Charter amendments on the same ballot as the 2023 General Election, at which the City's voters will be electing the Mayor and three City Commissioners, in an effort to avoid unduly politicizing Charter questions and, instead, submit any Charter-related ballot questions to the voters as part of the November 5, 2024 election. The Charter Review Board aims to conclude its fact-finding, research, and recommendations by May or June of 2024, to allow the City Commission sufficient time to review proposed Charter amendments, and corresponding ballot questions, prior to the Miami-Dade County Elections Department's deadline for the November 5, 2024 ballot.

On May 17, 2023, the Mayor and City Commission amended Resolution No. 2022-32448 to extend the term of the City of Miami Beach Ad Hoc Charter Review and Revision Board ("Charter Review Board") for an additional six (6) month period, with the new sunset date to be June 30, 2024, in order to provide the Charter Review Board with sufficient time to thoughtfully deliberate and make recommendations to the Mayor and City Commission regarding proposed amendments to the City Charter, for potential consideration by the City's voters as part of the November 5, 2024 election.

Resolution No. 2022-32390

Program for Public Information (PPI) Committee

Composition:

The goals of the Federal Emergency Management Agency's ("FEMA") National Flood Insurance Program ("NFIP") are to provide flood insurance to property owners, to encourage flood loss reduction activities by communities, and to save taxpayers' money.

The City of Miami Beach participates in the NFIP and the Community Rating System ("CRS"), a voluntary program that provides both incentives and tools to further these goals.

Participation in the CRS saves residents money by reducing flood insurance premiums.

The Program for Public Information ("PPI") provides activity points to improve the City's CRS score, which in turn helps to reduce flood insurance premiums.

An ad hoc advisory Resiliency Communications Committee was first created per Resolution No. 2016-29585 to serve as a PPI Committee from October 1, 2016 through October 1, 2017, and has been renewed every year since.

The latest advisory ad hoc Program for Public Information Committee was created pursuant to Resolution 2021- 31936, and will expire on December 31, 2022.

A PPI was developed by the initial ad hoc PPI Committee, according to a seven-step planning and public involvement process, defined by the CRS Program, and the PPI was adopted by the Mayor and City Commission per Resolution No. 2017- 29771.

Membership criteria for a PPI Committee is specified by CRS and must include: real estate agent(s), insurance agent(s), banking industry representative(s), the City's Floodplain Manager, and a Communications Department representative, and at least half of the Committee's members must be from outside the local government.

A new Program for Public Information Plan is required every five years, and on June 16, 2022 the Committee approved the new 2022 PPI to be transmitted to City Commission.

On July 20, 2022, the Mayor and City Commission adopted the Program for Public Information Plan via Resolution No. 2022-32216.

The City Manager recommends that the Mayor and City Commission accept the 2022 Report, attached to this Resolution as Exhibit A.

The members of the new ad hoc advisory PPI Committee (the Committee") shall be as follows:

The City's Communications Director; the City's Floodplain Manager; Scott Diffenderfer, as real estate agent; Carlos Gutierrez, a real estate agent; Alex Carrasco, a local bank representative; and John Lee, a local insurance agent.

The membership term on the new ad hoc Committee shall commence on January 1, 2023 and expire on December 31, 2023, subject to earlier or later sunset by the City Commission.
