I COMPLIED WITH THE VIOLATION ALREADY. WHY DID I GET A NOTICE TO APPEAR?

You must understand that the Department can request that a Special Magistrate hear the case, even if you are already in compliance, for the purpose of obtaining an adjudication of guilt. This means that you complied with the violation, but that if you repeat the same violation within a five (5) year period, the Department can request a hearing before the Special Magistrate so that fines can be imposed.

I AM NOT GOING TO BE ABLE TO COMPLY BY THE DATE THE SPECIAL MAGISTRATE ORDERED. HOW CAN I GET MORE TIME TO COMPLY?

If, through diligent effort, you are unable to comply by the date ordered by the Special Magistrate, you must make a written request for more time to comply before your compliance date. Mail, hand-deliver or e-mail your request for additional time to comply to the Clerk of the Special Magistrate shown at the bottom of the Notice to Appear. Once an order has been entered by the Special Magistrate, only the Special Magistrate can grant you the additional time. The case will be scheduled for a hearing and the Special Magistrate will review your request for more time. You must be present at the hearing in order for your request to be granted. Requests received on or after the compliance date are considered untimely and a Special Magistrate may deny your request.
